What's Possible?!

If you are enrolled full-time at any one of Vermont's participating colleges, you have access to 7 private institutions through a semester exchange program. The AVIC Semester Exchange Program allows you to experience a different educational environment without leaving the country or facing a language barrier and still graduate on time from your home institution.

This is your chance to broaden personal and educational perspectives alike.

- Discover new areas of study
- Learn from different professors
- Access new courses
- Try new learning approaches and methods
- Experience personal growth
- Explore graduate courses

There is no extra tuition cost although you pay any difference in room and board.
